Items thirsting dagger (stolen +1 striking curved dagger; see Drink Life), studded leather armor, ornate brass-and-gilt orb (regalia implement), esoterica pouch, thieves' toolkit, belt pouch, assorted trinkets

Esoteric Lore Big uses this skill to recall information about creatures, curses, and haunts. Treasure Lore covers valuables, their likely prices, and buyers; it does not automatically reveal an item's magical properties.

Dubious Knowledge On a failed Recall Knowledge check, Big receives one true and one false piece of information without knowing which is which. This does not apply to critical failures or Exploit Vulnerability.

Pickpocket Big ignores the usual –5 penalty to Steal or Palm an Object that is closely guarded. This does not allow him to steal actively wielded items, worn armor, or items from alert combatants.

Regalia While holding his orb, Big gains a +1 circumstance bonus to Deception, Diplomacy, and Intimidation; these bonuses are not included above. Allies who see him can Follow the Expert for his trained skills, gaining a +1 circumstance bonus when he is only trained.

AC 20; Fort +8, Ref +11, Will +14

HP 48

Inspiring Regalia (aura, emotion, mental, visual) 15 feet. While Big holds his orb, he and allies in the aura who can see him gain a +1 status bonus to saves against fear. When he normally reduces his frightened value at the end of his turn, he also reduces each ally's frightened value in the aura by 1.

Drink Life ↷ (magical) Frequency once per hour; Trigger Big damages a living creature with a melee Strike using his thirsting dagger; Requirements Big is holding the dagger; Effect The dagger draws a trace of the victim's vitality into Big. He gains 1d4 temporary HP for 1 minute, to a maximum of the damage the triggering Strike dealt.

Implement's Empowerment The damage above includes +2 per weapon damage die. This requires a held implement and hands occupied only by implements, esoterica, or one one-handed weapon. Without it, dagger damage is 2d4 and fist damage is 1d4.

Exploit Vulnerability ◆ (esoterica, manipulate, thaumaturge) Frequency once per round; Requirements Big holds his implement and possesses his esoterica; Effect Choose a visible creature; roll Esoteric Lore +12 against its level-based DC. This replaces his previous exploitation.

Critical Success Learn all its weaknesses, resistances, and immunities, including amounts; choose mortal weakness or personal antithesis.

Success Learn its highest weakness; choose either option.

Failure Use personal antithesis only.

Critical Failure No exploitation; Big is off-guard until his next turn starts.

Mortal Weakness His Strikes trigger the highest discovered weakness against the target and creatures of that exact type, without changing damage type.

Personal Antithesis The target alone gains weakness 4 to Big's weapon and unarmed Strikes.

On any result except critical failure, his Strikes against the target become magical. Exploitation lasts until he uses this action again. Apply the chosen weakness separately from listed damage; personal antithesis and mortal weakness do not stack.
